HOW TO USE YOUR CITY DIRECTORY

The new and improved Toronto City Directory is the most complete and comprehensive catalogue ever published of the inhabitants, business concerns and institutions of the city.

The revised form and new features exemplify the efforts of the Publishers to add to the utility and value of the Directory to its daily users and to make it an even more worthy representative of an outstanding city.

The major sections in the City Directory are arranged in the following order for ready reference:

1. INTRODUCTION AND MISCELLANEOUS
2. CLASSIFIED BUYERS' GUIDE
3. ALPHABETICAL SECTION
4. HOUSEHOLDERS' AND STREET GUIDE

Particular attention is called to the arrangement of sections as above. The Classified Buyers' Guide is printed on distinctive Canary Yellow paper. Instant identification and ease of reference is thereby facilitated.

We believe that the following list of typical questions, many of which the Directory will be daily called upon to answer, will serve to indicate both the types of information available and the sections in which it may be readily located.

The year 1939 was marked by the opening in February of the Toronto Island Airport and Seaplane Base, located to the south of the Western Channel. Work on this Airport and Seaplane Base was commenced in the Fall of 1937. The site was mainly reclaimed by hydraulic dredging from the Inner Harbour and Lake, and contains 177 acres, 150 of which have been sodded. There are four flightways 3,000 feet long and 500 feet wide; along the centre of two of these flightways is a paved runway 150 feet wide for the full length of the flightway. The Airport is equipped with a modern Administration Building, lighting system, hangar, seaplane ramp, low dock and float, and is being operated by the Toronto Harbour Commissioners for the City of Toronto.

The waterborne coal and coke trade of Toronto Harbour has shown marked increases in the last few years.

TORONTO—INDUSTRIAL FACTS

Toronto manufacturers annually purchase raw material to the value of $268,720,000.

There is more money invested in industrial enterprises in Toronto than the combined total industrial investments of the Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Toronto has capital invested in manufacturing equal to the combined manufacturing capital of the next eight manufacturing centres of Ontario.

Toronto pays annually $123,102,590 in salaries and wages to her industrial workers; a greater amount than any other Canadian city.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

There are approximately 2,860 manufacturing establishments in Toronto and suburbs. Toronto has more factories than any other Canadian city, including twice as many branches of British and United States firms. The gross value of manufactured products in 1937 exceeded $519,800,000. The capital invested in industries approximates $464,800,000. There were in the Toronto area over 101,950 industrial employees, and the 1937 industrial payroll approximated $123,103,000.

Toronto is firmly established as Canada's leading industrial and distributing city. It is the immediate centre of the largest and wealthiest consuming population in Canada (one-third of the buying power of the entire Dominion market is concentrated within a radius of 100 miles), and it is the centre also of Dominion-wide business and wholesale trade. It is also a favorable base for world-wide export trade, which is one of the outstanding features in Canadian industrial development.

The volume and diversity of Toronto manufacturers provide plentiful and efficient labor, skilled and unskilled, male and female, in fact it is the provincial clearing house for labor. Toronto has excellent distribution facilities in all directions, by rail, lake, highway and air, with complete linking up of these services. It is in close proximity to sources of raw materials. Splendid industrial sites are available in the harbor and other zones within the city limits and in its industrial suburbs. It has electric power at cost and it is one of the financial centres of the North American continent, providing ample financial facilities.

The Toronto Industrial Commission is the official industrial commission for the City of Toronto. The offices of the Commission are in Room 1614, Canada Permanent Building, 320 Bay Street, Toronto.

Many other statistics show how rapid and sizeable has been the city's business growth. Consider the large increase in the number of telephones—the pulses of city commerce in Toronto. The figures for the past few years are:—

The increase in the number of telephones in service since 1903 is as follows:—

December 31st, 1903	11,350	December 31st, 1936	200,415
December 31st, 1913	54,156	December 31st, 1937	214,866

TORONTO—EDUCATIONAL FACTS AND SCHOOL STATISTICS

Toronto has 19 libraries—a Public Reference Library, corner of College and St. George; Central Circulating Library, 36 St. George Street (with Central Reading Room and Music Library on College Street); 17 Branch Libraries (including a branch library for the troops in training in Exhibition Park), and a Boys and Girls House, 40 St. George Street. The annual use of books for 1939 was 4,313,478 copies. Total books in all libraries is 621,230.

Toronto offers unusual educational, religious, recreational and home facilities to the working man; sane labor laws honestly and ably administered, all result in satisfied and satisfactory employees.

The Advertisement
That Lives and Works for a year—

An Advertisement in the City Directory

was one of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success

HE believed in advertising · · · · · he knew what he wanted · · · a ship, and he put up an advertisement for one. He hung a shirt on a pole in a conspicuous place on his island · · · a place where it would be seen by any ship which sailed near

The Circulation was Selective, there was no other medium; but Crusoe kept his flag flying even though one garment after another wore out In the end he got what he wanted.

Crusoe advertised under discouraging circumstances, but had he taken down that signal after a year — where would he and his story be?

If you want success put your signal up and keep it flying. You have a thousand chances of success to his one. You can reach ALL the people all the time through
